

PLU Lute OverKnight March 10, 2017
Schedule of Events
#luteovernight

Friday, March 10

7:30am-8:20am

Breakfast – Anderson University Center (AUC)
Students who spent the night are welcome to enjoy breakfast in the Commons.
Overnight guests can drop off personal belongings in Room 206

8:30am-9:00am

Welcome – Karen Hille Phillips Center for the Performing Arts (KHP)
Melody Ferguson, Director of Admission
Daniel Lee, Vice President of Advancement
Angelica Maria Martinez Estrada, Class of 2017

9:15am-10:20am

1. Attend a class (students only)

You have the opportunity to experience a day as a Lute in the classroom. Please refer to your class visit insert to confirm what time and building your class will be in. Only prepare for class if it is a 9:15am start time. Meet in Red Square at 9:00am to be dismissed for your class.

2. Attend one of the following break-out sessions:

- Global Education & Study Abroad – Scandinavian Cultural Center (Room 100), AUC
Learn more about study abroad opportunities and global education at PLU.
- Pre-Professional Health – Room 133, AUC
Learn more about the pre-professional health sciences for medical, dental, veterinary, occupational therapy, and other professional health fields.
- What is the value of a liberal arts education? How can PLU help me choose my major? – Chris Knutzen East (Room 214), AUC
Many employers say it's the creative, communicative and problem-solving abilities that are the most valuable attributes of liberal arts majors. Dr. Kevin O'Brien, the Dean of Humanities, will discuss the value of general education at a liberal arts institution and how PLU can help you choose your major.

10:20am-11:00 am

Academic Fair — Regency Room (Room 203), AUC
This fair is a great opportunity to meet faculty and students of PLU in your specific academic interests. Learn more about your major and future classes!

11:15am-12:20pm

1. Attend a class (students only)

You have the opportunity to experience a day as a Lute in the classroom. Please refer to your class visit insert to confirm what time and building your class will be in. Only prepare for class if it is an 11:15am start time. Meet in the AUC lobby at 11:00am to be dismissed for your class.

2. Attend one of the following break-out sessions:

- Global Education & Study Abroad – Scandinavian Cultural Center (Room 100), AUC
Learn more about study abroad opportunities and global education at PLU.
- Pre-Professional Health – Room 133, AUC
Learn more about the pre-professional health sciences for medical, dental, veterinary, occupational therapy, and other professional health fields.
- What is the value of a liberal arts education? How can PLU help me choose my major? – Chris Knutzen East (Room 214), AUC
At a time when more emphasis seems to be on an education within STEM fields you might find yourself wondering about the value of a liberal arts education. Dr. Kevin O'Brien, the Dean of Humanities, will discuss the value of general education at a liberal arts institution and how PLU can help you choose your major.

12:30pm-1:30pm

Lunch from the Commons – The Commons Area, AUC

Complimentary meals are provided for prospective students and their families.

1:00pm-2:00pm

Involvement Fair – Regency Room (Room 203), AUC

This fair is a great opportunity to engage with staff and students of PLU. This is your chance to learn more about the many activities and services available outside of the classroom! Pick up an Involvement Fair flyer at the door for more details.

1:00pm-4:00pm

Join the Class of 2021 – AUC Lobby

During this time, you can turn in your housing form and submit the $200 Enrollment Deposit to guarantee your spot for Fall 2017!

Tours of Campus – Departing from AUC lobby

Residence Hall Expo – Departing from AUC lobby

Explore all eight residence halls, vote on the best room (<http://goo.gl/forms/IV1SDPGdEi>), and hear from current students why they love where they live. #PLURoomExpo #PLURHA

Financial Aid Conversations – Welcome Center, Hauge 127

Please sign up for a financial aid appointment during morning registration in KHP. Check in at the AUC lobby in the afternoon to see if there are any additional time slots.

12:00pm-5:00pm

Airport & Train Station Shuttles – Departing from AUC lobby

Shuttles will depart at various times throughout the afternoon. Please be prompt for your scheduled shuttle departure with your luggage. If you have any questions or concerns about shuttles, please call Joel Veloni (360) 580-0719.