

PLU Lute OverNight March 9 & 10
Schedule of Events
#luteovernight

Thursday, March 9

5:00pm-7:00pm

Wine, beer, and hors d'oeuvres reception – Anderson University Center (AUC) Regency Room 100

After dropping off your student enjoy a beverage and hors d'oeuvres in the Regency Room. Meet PLU President Thomas Krise, Vice Presidents, Academic Deans, and Mike Frechette, Interim Dean of Enrollment Management Services.

Friday, March 10

8:00am-8:30am

Check-In – Karen Hille Phillips Center for the Performing Arts (KHP)
Enjoy coffee and scones after the welcome in Anderson University Center.

8:30am-9:00am

Welcome – KHP
Melody Ferguson, Director of Admission
Daniel Lee, Vice President of Advancement
Angelica Maria Martinez Estrada, Class of 2017

9:15am-10:20am

Attend one of the following break-out sessions:

- Global Education & Study Abroad (Scan Center AUC 100) Dr. Tamara Williams, Executive Director of the Wang Center for Global Education
Learn more about study abroad opportunities and global education at PLU.
- Pre-Professional Health –(AUC 201) Dr. Matt Smith, Dean of Natural Sciences
Learn more about the pre-professional health sciences for medical, dental, veterinary, occupational therapy, and other professional health fields.
- What is a liberal arts education and what does it have to do with you and you major? (AUC 133) Dr. Kevin O'Brien, Dean of Humanities
PLU students graduate with a broad, well-rounded education thanks to the university's focus on the liberal arts. Learn how this focus will be part of your education, how it can help you choose and enhance your major, and how it will benefit you for years to come.

- 10:20am-11:00am Academic Fair – Regency Room (Room 203), AUC
This fair is a great opportunity to meet PLU faculty and students in your specific academic interests. Learn more about your major and future classes!
- 11:15am-12:20pm Attend one of the following break-out sessions:
- Global Education & Study Abroad (Scan Center AUC 100) Dr. Tamara Williams, Executive Director of the Wang Center for Global Education
Learn more about study abroad opportunities and global education at PLU.
  - Pre-Professional Health –(AUC 201) Dr. Matt Smith, Dean of Natural Sciences
Learn more about the pre-professional health sciences for medical, dental, veterinary, occupational therapy, and other professional health fields.
  - What is a liberal arts education and what does it have to do with you and your major? (AUC 133) Dr. Kevin O’Brien, Dean of Humanities
PLU students graduate with a broad, well-rounded education thanks to the university’s focus on the liberal arts. Learn how this focus will be part of your education, how it can help you choose and enhance your major, and how it will benefit you for years to come.
- 12:30pm-1:30pm Lunch from the Commons – The Commons Area, AUC
- 1:00pm-2:00pm Involvement Fair – Regency Room (Room 203), AUC
This fair is a great opportunity to engage with PLU staff and students. This is your chance to learn more about the many activities and services available outside of the classroom! Pick up an Involvement Fair flyer at the door for more details.
- 1:00pm-4:00pm Join the Class of 2021 – AUC Lobby
During this time, you can turn in your housing form and submit the $200 Enrollment Deposit to guarantee your spot for Fall 2017!
- Tours of Campus – Departing from AUC lobby
- Residence Hall Expo – Departing from AUC lobby
Explore all eight residence halls, vote on the best room (<http://goo.gl/forms/IV1SDPGdEi>), and hear from current students why they love where they live. #PLURoomExpo #PLURHA
- Financial Aid Conversations – Welcome Center, Hauge 127
Please sign up for a financial aid appointment during morning registration in KHP. Check in at the AUC lobby in the afternoon to see if there are any additional time slots.
- 9:00am-7:00pm Tunnel of Oppression – AUC CK Hallway
Tunnel of Oppression is an interactive experience that aims to raise awareness of issues of privilege and oppression by presenting scenes grounded in real-world, lived experiences and to provide space for dialogue and reflection on social justice issues. Scenes within the Tunnel are designed by students and provide a creative outlet for the community to learn, reflect, and dialogue together.