open drawing sessions

with a live model, sponsored by the Department of Art and Design at Pacific Lutheran University, will take place on select Wednesday evenings from 6-8 p.m. in the Drawing Studio (126) of Ingram Hall.

All students and community members interested in drawing from a live model are welcome to attend.

The evening model session is a great opportunity to develop your interests and talent in drawing. This is a non-classroom situation (no formal instruction will be provided), so bring the drawing tools of your choice and enjoy the relaxed studio atmosphere or work on your portfolio. No sign up or registration required. Just show up.
