

World Philosophy Day

A Screening and Discussion of the Documentary Film

BLUE GOLD:

WORLD WATER WARS

Thursday, November 21st
7:00-9:00PM, Ingram 100
Pizza will be provided

In 2005, the General Conference of UNESCO established World Philosophy Day as a “day of collective exercise in free, reasoned, and informed thinking on the major challenges of our time.” Explore this year’s theme, “Inclusive Societies, Sustainable Planet,” with a screening and discussion of Blue Gold: World Water Wars, a documentary film about the depletion and privatization of the world’s water supply and their consequences for the developing world.
