

The background features two stylized atomic models. One is in the top right corner, and another is in the bottom left corner. Each model consists of a central nucleus made of black and grey spheres, with several black elliptical orbits and small black dots representing electrons.

R. William Hassenpfeffer Memorial Committee presents...

"A Hundred Years of Science"

---

The Twentieth Memorial Lecture

Dr. Martha H. Smithers

Professor of Psychiatry & Neuroscience

at the University of California, Yountville

Monday, September 18, 8 p.m.

Reilly Rooser Auditorium, Truchas

Admission is FREE