CHOIR

THE Pacific Lutheran College Choir, "the Choir of the West," will be the guest choir of the International Young People's Luther League Convention at Chicago June 17-21. The invitation was extended by the Y. P. L. L. through Rev. N. M. Ylvisaker, Executive Secretary of the International Y. P. L. L. At this convention the choir will have a most prominent position. It will make three public appearances, besides singing in the Choral Union, which will be composed of about 4,000 voices. The Choral Union Concert will be held in the Chicago Civic Stadium, which has a seating capacity of 25,000. The convention proper will be held in the Stevens Hotel.

in Washington, Idaho, Montana, South Dakota, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Wisconsin, Minnesota, and North Dakota. It is estimated that about 100,000 people will hear the choir. The concerts will be given in churches of the Norwegian Lutheran Church of America, the American Lutheran Church, and the Augustana Synod.

From April 24 to 28 the choir made a short trip with concerts in Winlock, Wash.; Astoria, Oregon; Chinook, Wash.; and South Bend, Wash. The concert in Astoria was given in connection with the Oregon Circuit Young People's Luther League convention.

The choir gave a concert at the North Pacific District Convention of the Y. P. L. L. at Seattle, May 3. During the school season they gave concerts in Tacoma and vicinity and also gave a radio program.

THE ARIONS

TO introduce the spirit of Pacific Lutheran College to people not only of the Pacific Coast but also to those of the middle and western states by music and song, was the purpose for which the Arions were organized on the initiative of Henry Holm-Jensen. At the time of the organization in April, 1930, the members were: Anna Mikkelsen, soprano; Wallis Kerr, violinist; Henry Holm-Jensen, baritone, and Cora Vista, accompanist. On June 16, 1930, the Arions started on a concert tour into the middle and western states. The trip lasted for a period of two and one-half months, during which time sixty programs were presented. Through music, God's word was presented in programs in Idaho, Montana, North Dakota, Iowa, Nebraska, Colorado, Utah, Oregon, and Washington. At these various programs Henry Holm-Jensen gave talks about Pacific Lutheran College.

From February 20 to March 8, 1931, the Arions made a tour of California and Oregon. The schedule here included Portland, Medford, Orland, Santa Barbara, Sacramento, Oakland, San Francisco, Long Beach, Zelzah, Los Angeles, Kingsburg, Turlock, Patterson, Santa Rosa, Eureka, and Eugene. On this tour Miss Harriett Benner served as accompanist in the place of Miss Cora Vista, who had graduated.
