Choir of the West

With the thoughts of sunny California in mind, the 1950-51 choir began an eventful year.

The first appearances of the choir were in the Christmas concerts at Fort Lewis and Memorial gymnasium. Next were full concerts in Seattle and Tacoma. The choir was also guest performer on several other programs and made numerous radio broadcasts.

The twenty-fourth annual tour began March 2nd. For sixteen days the choir gave concerts throughout Oregon and California. Included on the itinerary were San Francisco, Oakland, Los Angeles, San Diego, Sacramento, Portland and other cities.

The annual Homecoming concert was presented in the Memorial gymnasium on April 1. Later in the spring the choir sang in Everett and Bellvue.

Soloists for this year were Eleanor Hanson, Joan Soper, Shirleyanne Sandin and Richard Svare. Serving as officers for the year were Ludwig Siqueland, president; James Gibson, vice-president; Louise Stephenson, secretary, and Ray Tobiason, student director.

Inspiration, enjoyment and success were the key words in the choir's description of their year under the direction of Gunnar J. Malmin and the management of Milton Nesvig.
