

Row 1, Mary Griffiths, Judie Johnson, Pat Isensee, Lollie Ihlenfeldt, Christy Ulleland, Dzintra Zamelis, Gretchen Hax, Margaret Hauge, Gloria Mitchell, Karen Swindland; Row 2, Lois Svendsen, Judy Heitman, Coralie Balch, Linda Johnson, Merrily Worrell, Sandra Vinje, Gunnar J. Malmin, Kristina Pernu, Rose Marie Flansburg, Leota Laursen, Gloria Tharp, Emily Lou Erickson; Row 3, Tina Dempster, Miriam Muedeking, Kathy Taylor, Dixie Likkel, Jan Coltom, Joyce Lundmark, Carole Byberg, Marilyn Boe,

Serena Hopp, Ruth Berhow, Ruth Gunderson, Deanna Haugland; Row 4, Don Gross, Martin Schaefer, Paul Hannegan, Darryl Meyer, Ed Harmic, Virgil Anderson, Henry Flack, Phil Randoy, Don Suddarth, Dave Smith, Sid Shelver, Ted Johnstone, Gary Anderberg; Row 5, Dan Erlander, Hans Floan, Phil Yokers, John Ruud, Karl Gronberg, Orville Jacobson, Karl Reitz, Mike Wilderman, Bob Burbank, Dwain Sanders, Bill Koll, Ole Malmin, Arv Lokensgard, Walt Aalto, Don Isensee, Bob Anderson.

Choir of the West

CHOIR OFFICERS: Virgil Anderson, chaplain; Dixie Likkel, secretary; Karl Reitz, vice president; Dave Smith, president.

The sounds of beautiful sacred music were again heard as the Choir of the West visited the various cities of the Pacific Northwest. Under the direction of Gunnar J. Malmin, the choir toured Washington, Oregon, and Idaho enriching the lives of many with their excellently performed music.

In addition to these activities, the choir also made various appearances in the Tacoma area singing their messages in song.