

Gladys M. Knutzen Memorial M.B.A. Scholarship Application
(Graduate)
2020-2021
PLU School of Business

Mr. and Mrs. Victor F. Kuntzen established the Gladys M. Knutzen Memorial MBA Scholarship in 1991 in memory of Victor's sister. Victor is a retired Boeing vice president and controller. He also served as a Pacific Lutheran University Board of Regent from 1969 until 1983. Victor died in 1997. Blessed be his memory. This scholarship is intended to encourage qualified candidates to reach their greatest possible potential through education.

SCHOLARSHIP AMOUNT: $4513

CRITERIA:

- Full-time or Part-time Graduate student (8 or more credit hours a semester)
- Academic achievement
- Financial need (FAFSA form required). A need-based scholarship is one that requires the student to demonstrate financial need according to the federal financial aid report. A (domestic) student must fill out a Federal Financial Aid Application (FAFSA) indicating PLU as your school of choice to be considered. Need is determined by the PLU Financial Aid Office according to criteria established by the Federal government. Need is affected by a number of factors and all students are encouraged to apply. For more information on FAFSA, see www.fafsa.ed.gov
