

Global Studies Spring 2018 Capstone Presentations

May 17 – May 24, 2018

Thursday, May 17, Morken 103

- 2:00-2:30     Olivia Cook     The Narrative of Public Space: A Case Study of People's Square in Shanghai, China
- 2:30-3:00     Hannah Stephens     Migration, Gender, and Public Health in Thailand
- 3:00-3:15     Break
- 3:15-3:45     Mckall Mattis     Ethnicity, Vulnerability, and Resilience: Marginalized Communities and Recovery After Hurricane Katrina
- 4:00-4:30     Laura Lampson     Swedish Feminist Foreign Policy: The Impact upon Realpolitik and Implications for the International Community

Friday, May 18, Morken 103

- 4:00-4:30     Denis Julio     Humanitarian Intervention: American Military's Impact and Future in the International Community
- 4:30-5:00     Aslin Clagg     Foreign Waste Ban: China's Shifting Waste Economy

Wednesday, May 23, Xavier Hall, 250

- 9:30-10:00     Meghan Gould     Hierarchies of Access: Colonial Influences on India's Education System
- 10:00-10:30     Sophia Mahr     Post-Genocide Reconciliation: Rwanda's System of Development & Forgiveness
- 10:30-10:45     Break
- 10:45-11:15     Margaret Chell     Consequences of Care: Outcomes of Medical Voluntourism in Haiti

Thursday, May 24, Hauge Administration Building, Room 200

- 2:00-2:30     Martine Wahlstrøm     Dagongmei: Women Factory Workers in China and the Search for New Social Identities