

Political Science Department Capstone Presentations

Please join us on May 8th in Xavier 201 for poster presentations of the following projects:

1. Session 1 (4:00-5:00): Co-Authored Papers

1. Aziza Ahmed and Riley Dolan: "A Solution: Mandatory Voting in the United States"
2. Alex Alcantar and Angela Dominguez: "A Beneficial or Detrimental 'Special Relationship'? An Examination of the United States/Israel Relationship"
3. Haedon Brunelle and Annika Pederson: "Forecasting the 2020 U.S. Presidential Election"
4. Kennedy Gwin and Nadine Nabass: "Refugee Quota Allotments in Relation to Shaping US Policy"
5. Cecile Lancaster and Vanna Tangonan: "Laying the Path for Successful Democratic Transitions: A Cross-Continental Comparative Study of Paraguay and Botswana"
6. Nelago Nuunyango and Molly Sullivan: "Presidential Rhetoric, Presidential Opinion, and Criminal Justice Policy"
7. Chris Park and Mark Valerio: "News Media Bias in a War on Terror"

2. Session 2 (5:15-6:15): Single-Authored Papers

1. Kylee Dickinson: "The Influences of Partisan Affiliation on the First Amendment and the Disinviting of Campus Speakers"
2. Maya Dotson: "Processing Sexual Assault"
3. Sammy Fuller: "Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg's Jurisprudence Examined Through the Equal Protection Clause"
4. Alysha Madison: "Mass Incarceration and its Effects on Communities"
5. Keith Pettit: "Municipal Broadband"
6. Jaskaran Sandhu: "Whose Rights Are Protected in the Case of Terror Attacks?"
7. Jordan Waits: "A Brief Exploration of Washington State's Firearm Legislation and Voting Trends"