

PACIFIC LUTHERAN UNIVERSITY

CENTER FOR CONTINUED NURSING LEARNING

12180 Park Ave S. Tacoma, WA 98447

July 16, 2018

Keeping Kids in the Classroom

6.75 Clock Hours

Keeping Kids in the Classroom

July 16, 2018 8:30 - 3:45

University Center Room 133

8:15 - 8:30 Registration

8:30 - 9:45 School Scene Drugs and Effects
-Dr. Kathy Richardson

9:45 - 10:00 Break

10:00 - 11:15 Classroom Updates for Diabetes and Seizures (includes tentative topic: cultural awareness with immunizations)
- Dr. Erla Champ-Gibson

11:15 - 12:00 Lunch - Free Pizza lunch available (Students with dietary restrictions, please bring a lunch)

12:00 - 3:45 - Virtual Reality Experience: Seizures in the Classroom and Diabetes in the Nurses Office
- Wyzlink (<http://wyzlink.com/>)

Join PLU in a new virtual reality program with presentations.

Guest Speakers and two virtual reality scenarios for school nurses.

Have virtual hands on experience with a classroom seizure and a diabetic situation. Make decisions and interact as you experience a virtual setting. Room is limited.

PLU CCNL is a provider of in-service education clock hours by Professional Education and Certification Division of the Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction (OSPI), Olympia, WA.

Registration - Pricing - Discounts

Cost: $125 - Monday 7/16/18 - Special New Program Format Pricing !
(no additional discounts)
6.75 Clock Hours

Register online: www.plu.edu/ccnl