

University of Oregon Summer Program for Undergraduate Research (SPUR)

The University of Oregon Summer Program for Undergraduate Research (SPUR) offers mentored summer research fellowships. Fellows participate in ongoing and impactful research in Life Sciences laboratories at the University of Oregon during the summer months.

Applications for Summer 2018 are now being accepted!

Please visit spur.uoregon.edu to apply now & learn more!

Benefits Include:

- 10-week summer research stipend
- Full-time mentored research project
- Professional development workshops
- Social activities and recreational opportunities in our beautiful state
- National conference travel opportunities
- Undergraduate research symposium
- Funded round-trip travel for visiting students
- Funded Room and Board for visiting students

Contact:

Dr. Bryan Rebar, Program Director
1210 University of Oregon, Eugene, OR 97403
summerpgms@uoregon.edu

