

ACS
Chemistry for Life®

American Chemical Society

ACS Bridge Travel Awards

powered by IGEN

Inclusive Graduate Education Network

ATTEND A PROFESSIONAL MEETING ON ACS

The American Chemical Society (ACS) is pleased to offer the ACS Bridge Travel Awards, designed to defray costs for students from underrepresented minority groups who plan to attend the spring ACS National Meeting or the meeting of National Organization for the Professional Advancement of Black Chemists and Chemical Engineers (NOBCChE) occurring every fall.

Travel support may be offered to students who:

- Are enrolled in an undergraduate program
- Have not been accepted into a graduate program
- Identify as an underrepresented minority

Learn more and apply at

www.acs.org/bridgetravel

“Professional meetings are fun! You can learn about valuable resources relevant to your own professional development and you can network with students and researchers from universities, national labs, and industry.”

—Joerg Schlatterer, Ph.D.
Director, ACS Bridge Project
Manager, ACS Graduate &
Postdoctoral Scholars Office

Learn more about the ACS Bridge Travel Awards and apply at
www.acs.org/bridgetravel

The ACS Bridge Project (Bridge Program and Bridge Travel Awards) has support from the National Science Foundation (NSF) through grant NSF-1834545 and the American Chemical Society. The ACS Bridge Project is a part of the NSF INCLUDES Alliance: Inclusive Graduate Education Network (IGEN). For more information, about IGEN, visit IGENetwork.org. Any opinions, findings, and conclusions or recommendations expressed in this material are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the views of the National Science Foundation.