

INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH EXPERIENCE FOR UNDERGRADUATES (IREU)

The International Research Experiences for Undergraduates (REU) is a 11-12 week program based in France. Participants spend their summer working with graduate students, post-doctoral researchers, and scientists on well-developed research project under the mentorship of an experienced faculty member. All areas of Chemistry are included.

PROGRAM DATES:

May - July
2026

LOCATIONS:

- Toulouse: University of Toulouse, Paul Sabatier
- Strasbourg: University of Strasbourg
- Paris: Sorbonne Universite
- Reims: AgroParisTech

ELIGIBILITY:

- US citizen/permanent resident *
- some previous research experience required
- students with research interests in Chemistry, Biochemistry, or other STEM areas are encouraged to apply
- Pre-professional (Medical, Law, Dentistry, Veterinary) students are NOT encouraged to apply

* DACA students can be considered for participation at the Reims site

STIPENDS:

- $6000 food and miscellaneous
- $1000 travel allowance
- free housing
- up to $1000 reimbursement for 2027 ACS participation

APPLY:

Deadline: January 15, 2026
reu.chem.ufl.edu

Support:

