National Science Foundation Center for the Integration of Modern Optoelectronic Materials on Demand Research Experience for Undergraduates

IMOD

Program Information

- Program dates are from Jun. 20th – Aug. 20th
- Open to undergraduate freshman, sophomores, and juniors
- Eligible to US citizens, US nationals, or permanent residents
- Stipend up to $7000 (or $700/wk)
- Non-local students receive a travel reimbursement up to $600
- Housing costs are covered
- Professional development
- Opportunities to present your research

Application Materials

- Unofficial transcripts and resume/CV
- Personal statement (up to 750 words)
- Statement of Purpose (up to 750 words)
- Lab selection (3)
- Two references

Applications open December 1, 2026