

Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA)

What is FMLA?

FMLA is the Family Medical Leave Act which entitles eligible employees to take up to 12 weeks of unpaid, protected* time off in a 12 month period for:

- The birth or adoption of a child (including foster care placement)
- Serious health condition of the employee OR of a spouse, child, or parent of an employee
- Military exigency arising out of the fact that your spouse, child, or parent is on/called to active duty as a member of the Regular Armed Forces, National Guard or Reserves
- Care of a spouse, child, parent, or next of kin who is a service member or qualified veteran with a serious injury or illness incurred in the line of duty (employees may take up to 26 weeks of leave in a 12 month period)

*Employees receive reinstatement to the same job or one with similar pay and status upon return, exemption from disciplinary action for time missed, and continued health benefits if employee pays normal contribution amount.

Who is eligible for FMLA?

- Employees who have worked at PLU for at least 1 year, AND
- At least 1250 hours worked in the past 12 months

What constitutes a “serious health condition”?

A period of incapacity for more than 3 consecutive days and any subsequent period of incapacity relating to the same condition. Some examples include:

- Overnight hospital care and any subsequent treatment
- An absence of three plus days involving visits to a health care provider, possibly with continuing treatment
- Chronic conditions including periodic or regular health care visits (including pregnancy)

These are only examples, not a complete list. To determine whether leave being sought qualifies for FMLA please check with HR.

What is a “qualifying exigency”?

Qualifying exigencies may include, but are not limited to: attending certain military events, arranging for alternative childcare, addressing certain financial and legal arrangements, attending certain counseling sessions, and attending post-deployment reintegration briefings.

How does the process work?

All forms are available on HR website.

- Employee should submit a PLU Leave of Absence Request form to Human Resources, signed by supervisor, at least 30 days prior to the date leave is scheduled to begin (if leave is foreseeable) or as soon as practicable.
- Have medical certification completed by a doctor; return to HR. A physician’s certificate is required for all medical leaves including maternity/paternity. Note: other documentation may be necessary to determine leave eligibility.
- During leave employee should stay in contact with supervisor; this is especially important for intermittent leave or if there is a change in the intended return to work date.
- If leave was for an employee’s own condition, provide a PLU return to work release, signed by doctor to HR prior to returning to full duty.
- Report time away from work accurately on timecard. Contact HR with questions.

What are PLU’s rights?

- To review all information, including doctor’s statements, to determine compatibility with program requirements
- To fill the team member’s position, if necessary, as long as the team member is placed in a position of similar pay and status upon return
- Requiring the employee to make insurance payments while on leave, and to collect insurance premium payments if the team member chooses not to return to work
- To deny benefits for late, retroactive, or unqualified requests

SECTION I: For Completion by the EMPLOYER

INSTRUCTIONS to the EMPLOYER: The Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) provides that an employer may require an employee seeking FMLA protections because of a need for leave due to a serious health condition to submit a medical certification issued by the employee's health care provider. Please complete Section I before giving this form to your employee. Your response is voluntary. While you are not required to use this form, you may not ask the employee to provide more information than allowed under the FMLA regulations, 29 C.F.R. §§ 825.306-825.308. Employers must generally maintain records and documents relating to medical certifications, recertifications, or medical histories of employees created for FMLA purposes as confidential medical records in separate files/records from the usual personnel files and in accordance with 29 C.F.R. § 1630.14(c)(1), if the Americans with Disabilities Act applies, and in accordance with 29 C.F.R. § 1635.9, if the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act applies.

SECTION II: For Completion by the EMPLOYEE

INSTRUCTIONS to the EMPLOYEE: Please complete Section II before giving this form to your medical provider. The FMLA permits an employer to require that you submit a timely, complete, and sufficient medical certification to support a request for FMLA leave due to your own serious health condition. If requested by your employer, your response is required to obtain or retain the benefit of FMLA protections. 29 U.S.C. §§ 2613, 2614(c)(3). Failure to provide a complete and sufficient medical certification may result in a denial of your FMLA request. 29 C.F.R. § 825.313. Your employer must give you at least 15 calendar days to return this form. 29 C.F.R. § 825.305(b).

Your name: _____
First Middle Last

SECTION III: For Completion by the HEALTH CARE PROVIDER

INSTRUCTIONS to the HEALTH CARE PROVIDER: Your patient has requested leave under the FMLA. Answer, fully and completely, all applicable parts. Several questions seek a response as to the frequency or duration of a condition, treatment, etc. Your answer should be your best estimate based upon your medical knowledge, experience, and examination of the patient. Be as specific as you can; terms such as "lifetime," "unknown," or "indeterminate" may not be sufficient to determine FMLA coverage. Limit your responses to the condition for which the employee is seeking leave. Do not provide information about genetic tests, as defined in 29 C.F.R. § 1635.3(f), genetic services, as defined in 29 C.F.R. § 1635.3(e), or the manifestation of disease or disorder in the employee's family members, 29 C.F.R. § 1635.3(b). Please be sure to sign the form on the last page.
