ALEJANDRO has everything it takes to be a Marine. Everything except a social security number.

José has a degree in mechanical engineering but his diploma collects dust. He works on construction crews.

OLA works in a university lab researching more effective cancer treatments. But she might be deported in the spring.

ERIKA is a courageous leader of the national Dreamer movement but she fears that any day her family could be deported.

Brian Erickson, Policy Advocate for the American Civil Liberties Union of New Mexico’s Regional Center for Border Rights, will lead a Q & A after the screening.

When? Friday, October 4th at 5:00 pm  Where? Ingram 100