6. You will see the page shown below.

The screenshot shows the 'Test Registration' page of a website. The top navigation bar includes links for Home, Announcement, About Test, Test Registration (highlighted), Test Center, Score & Certificate, Practise, Test Regulation, and About Us. The left sidebar contains a tree structure with categories: Chinese Proficiency (with links for HSK Levels I through VI), HSKK (with links for Speaking Test at Beginner, Intermediate, and Advanced levels), and Youth Chinese Test (with links for New YCT Levels I through IV and a Speaking Test at the Beginner level). The main content area features a light blue header with a lightbulb icon and the text 'Easily complete your online registration for chinese test in just 5 minutes!'. Below this is a three-step process diagram: Step 1 'Signing Up', Step 2 'Choose Time and Site', and Step 3 'Fill out Personal Information and Upload the Photo'. A paragraph explains that registration is quick and requires signing up, selecting a category, date, and site, and providing personal information. Another paragraph reminds users to pay examination fees before the deadline. A 'Tips' section lists three points: reading regulations, keeping account information, and contacting the test center for questions.

HSK Level II

Register Now

The HSK (Level II) assesses test takers' abilities in the application of everyday Chinese. It is the counterpart of the Level II of the Chinese Language Proficiency Scales for Speakers of Other Languages and the A2 Level of the Common European Framework of Reference (CEF). Test takers who are able to pass the HSK (Level II) have an excellent grasp of basic Chinese and can communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar and routine matters.

The HSK (Level II) is intended for students who have studied Chinese for two semesters (an academic year), with 2-3 class hours in each week. These students have mastered 300 commonly used words and related grammar patterns.

9. Click “Register Now” to register for your intended HSK test.

10. Choose Pacific Lutheran University Language Resource Center as your test site, then click “Submit” to complete your registration process.
