PACIFIC LUTHERAN UNIVERSITY

EXCELLENCE IN EDUCATION GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP

Master of Arts in Education with Residency Certification

Background

Each year Pacific Lutheran University awards scholarships ranging from $5,000 to $20,000 to new applicants in the MAE CERT program. The number and amount of the scholarships vary depending on the qualifications of the candidates. The scholarships aim to increase the number of under-represented students in the program and classroom, and support those who plan to teach in high need areas.

Eligibility

Students applying to the MAE CERT program may apply for this scholarship. Preference will be given to underrepresented students, specifically minority students and/or students seeking an endorsement in a high need area. (i.e. math, science, special education or English language learners). The applicant must:

• Have a 3.25 minimum cumulative GPA in a previous degree, on a 4.0 scale

Application Procedure

To apply for the Excellence in Education Graduate Scholarship, please submit the following items:

- 1. A completed application to study in the MAE CERT program must be submitted by January 15.
- 2. Excellence in Education Graduate Scholarship application form by January 15.
- 3. An essay addressing the role of diversity in the K-12 classroom, no more than 5 pages, double-spaced, by January 15. Please reference your name on each page.
- 4. A letter of recommendation that addresses your community, civic, and multicultural engagement. This is a separate letter of recommendation from the two you will submit with your program application. Please use the form attached to send to your recommender, and ask that the form be returned by January 15.
