About the Director

Sølvvinden Flute Ensemble director Jennifer Rhyne is Associate Professor of Flute and Music Theory at Pacific Lutheran University. Before joining the faculty of PLU, Rhyne taught at Fort Hays State University in Kansas. The North Carolina native holds degrees in flute performance and in neuroscience from Oberlin College and Conservatory of Music, as well as degrees in flute performance from the University of Michigan and Stony Brook University. She pursued non-degree studies at the École Normale de Musique in Paris. Her teachers include Kathleen Chastain, Michel Debost, Lorna McGhee, Carol Wincenc and Pierre-Yves Artaud. She has won prizes in competitions sponsored by the National Flute Association, the Texas Flute Society, the Albuquerque Flute Association, and the Washington, DC Flute Society and has performed at Carnegie Hall and Madison Square Garden in New York. She holds the positions of Second Flute with Symphony Tacoma and Principal Flute with Vashon Opera, and appears regularly with area ensembles including Northwest Sinfonietta, Lyric Opera Northwest, the Blessed Sacrament Baroque Orchestra, and on programs such as the Walla Walla Chamber Music Series, the Second City Chamber Music Series, and at the Icicle Creek Center for the Arts. She has been a recipient of performance and research grants from the National Endowment for the Arts, the State of Iowa, the PLU School of Arts and Communication, and PLU's Benson-Starkovich Faculty Development Grant. A dedicated pedagogue, her articles have been published in School Band and Orchestra Magazine and Flute Talk, and she has been a featured lecturer and masterclass clinician at the National Flute Association Convention, Kansas Music Educators Convention, the University of Oregon, Cornish College of the Arts, Ohio University, Portland State University, Western Kentucky University, and Columbus State University in Georgia as well as a frequent adjudicator for contests in the Northwest. Her research on and advocacy for composer Robert Muczynski's work Fuzzette, the Tarantula (1962) for narrator, flute, alto saxophone, and piano led to the first publication of the composition by Theodore Presser Co. in 2019. Her article "Discovering Muczynski's Unknown Gem" was subsequently published in The Flutist Quarterly. She served as the Assistant Program Chair for the 2017 National Flute Association's Convention. Her sabbatical research during the 2021 fall semester on collegiate-level eurhythmics (movement paired with music to improve rhythm, phrasing, and musicality) took her to the Cleveland Institute of Music and Carnegie Mellon University to observe classes taught by master teachers in the subject. Dr. Rhyne's students have won prizes in competitions sponsored by PLU, the Coeur d'Alene Symphony, the Tacoma Philharmonic, the Washington Music Educators Association, and the National Flute Association. She enjoys performing a wide variety of music from all genres and eras, including historically-informed performances of early music on a one-keyed wooden flute as well as performances of avant-garde contemporary solo and chamber works.

About the Ensemble

The Sølvvinden Flute Ensemble was founded in 1994 by the ensemble's first director, Rae Terpenning. The ensemble performs frequently at PLU and venues such as Town Hall in Seattle, the Washington State Capitol Rotunda, and the Concert Series of St. John's Episcopal Church in Olympia. In past years, the ensemble has been selected to perform at the Washington Music Educators Association conference in Yakima and at the National Flute Association Convention. The flute choir performs using Burkart and Philip Hammig piccolos, Trevor James alto flutes, and a Kingma bass flute. The Norwegian term Sølvvinden can be translated as The Silver Wind.
