PLU Honor Orchestra for Strings

General Information

1. CHECK-IN: The registration and information desk will be located in the lobby of Mary Baker Russell Music Center (MBRMC). Signs will indicate the various audition, storage and warm-up and rehearsal areas. PLU student assistants will be available to guide and assist you as necessary.

2. INSTRUMENTS: All participants should bring their own instruments.

3. MUSIC STANDS: All participants should bring folding music stands.

4. FEE: The $95.00 per student registration fee is due JANUARY 9. This fee includes instruction by a nationally recognized conductor, instruction from members of the PLU string faculty, dinner on Friday and lunch on Saturday in the University Center Cafeteria. This fee is non-refundable.

5. INSTRUMENT STORAGE: Places for instrument storage are provided in and around the rehearsal area during the event.

6. PARKING: Parking on our campus is limited. If possible, please park on the street. Parking permits are available at the MBRMC Lobby Desk.

7. AUDITION PROCEDURE – Seating will be determined by recorded audition prior to the event. However, participants may choose to audition prior to the first rehearsal to be a section leader. This audition will consist of a selection of passages from the Honor Orchestra music, distributed prior to the event.

8. CONCERTS: There will be a concert on Sunday, January 24 in Lagerquist Concert Hall on the Pacific Lutheran University campus, at 5p.m. for participants’ family and guests. There will be no tickets for either concert, admission is free and seating is first come, first served.

9. LODGING: Lodging is NOT available on the PLU campus. Please see hotel list on web page.
