Students who choose to major in music education have a nearly 100% job placement rate upon graduation. Other music students have gone on to graduate study in music performance at some of the top schools in the country.

AUDITIONING IN PIANO

Piano scholarship auditions occur in January and February each year. Scholarships may be awarded to any incoming PLU student regardless of major. A video recording is accepted for students living far away, but in-person auditions are recommended.

Piano scholarships are stacked on top of academic awards and are renewable for four years. Requirements for the scholarship include taking piano lessons and being involved in an ensemble each semester. Awards range from $1,000-$7,500.

Required Audition Repertoire:

- One Baroque work (e.g., a movement from a dance suite or a Prelude and Fugue from the Well-Tempered Clavier OR a fast movement from a Classical Sonata by Haydn, Mozart, Schubert or Beethoven) AND
- Romantic or 20th-21st century work

Music degrees available at PLU:

- Professional Music Degrees
 - Bachelor of Music: 80 semester hours in music
 - Bachelor of Music Education: leads to state licensure, four possible specializations
 - Bachelor of Musical Arts: 62 semester hours in music
- Liberal Arts Degree
 - Bachelor of Arts in Music: 44 semester hours in music
- Music Minor (both generalized and specialized)
 - 18-22 semester hours in music

AFFORDABILITY

Once scholarships and other financial aid options are factored in, many students find PLU is comparable in cost to many other institutions, including state schools. 97% of PLU students receive financial aid and in 2019-20, the average financial aid offer was $35,853. Over $51 million in PLU-funded scholarships and grants are awarded to students.
