

What skills do you have students practice during simulation?

Skills in simulation range from handwashing to assessments, charting to reporting, medication administration to IV fluids and maintenance, along with insertion and removal of nasogastric tubes and foley catheters, and more!