Research and Evidence Based Practice Awards
Enhancing Operational Readiness with Digital Self-Managed Cognitive Behavioral Therapy for Insomnia (CBTI): A Pilot Randomized Controlled Trial for Service Members
Funded by:	TriService Nursing Research Program #N25D318HP
Role:	PI
Dates of Award:	9/26/25-9/25/27
Funded Amount:	$499,316
Project Aims:	Aim #1: To evaluate the effectiveness and delivery method of a self-managed digital mobile application for insomnia in service members over a six-week period on insomnia severity (ISI), sleep quality (CSD), and sleep measures: sleep latency, wake after sleep onset, sleep efficiency, number of awakenings, total sleep time (CSD) at baseline, six weeks, and one month post intervention as compared to those receiving usual care.
Non-Pharmacologic Interventions for Insomnia in Service Members: A Systematic Review with Meta-Analysis
Funded by:	TriService Nursing Research Program #B01-N24-11207
Role:	PI
Dates of Award:	7/1/24-7/1/26
Funded Amount:	$400,000
Project Aims	Aim #1: To determine the effectiveness of nonpharmacologic sleep Interventions. for military service members sleep outcomes (i.e. sleep latency, wake after sleep onset, sleep efficiency, number of awakenings, total sleep time, sleep quality, insomnia severity).
Advancing Evidence-Based Practice in the Military: A Descriptive Analysis
Funded by:	Programmatic Staff Support TriService Nursing Research Program #HU0001220041
Role:	Principle Investigator
Dates of Award	12/2021-3/2023
Project Aims	The primary aim of this study was to evaluate evidence-based practice capabilities critical to the successful integration of evidence-based practice in the Defense Health Agency and Armed Services.
Development of the Readiness Estimate & Deployability Index for Ship Based Global Health Engagement Missions
Funded by:	Center for Naval Analysis, Bureau of Navy Medicine #DME-2020-U-28483
Role:	Technical Lead
Dates of Award	8/2020-11/2021
Funded Amount	$350k
Project Aims	The primary aim of this study was to identify critical dimensions of ship-based GHE readiness to inform pre-deployment readiness metrics. The secondary aim of this study was to examine current evidence of pre-deployment training and readiness gaps identified for ship based GHE missions.

Screening and Strategies to Prevent Post-Operative Nausea and Vomiting
Funded by:	TriService Nursing Research Program N18-A01/HU0001-18-2-TS01
Role:	Scientific Mentor
Dates of Award	7/2018-5/2019
Funded Amount	$67k
Project Aims	The aim of this Evidenced Based Practice project was to evaluate the effectiveness of postoperative nausea and vomiting (PONV) risk-scoring strategy with the Apfel Simplified Score.
Global Health Engagement Missions: Lessons Learned Aboard US Naval Hospital Ships
Funded by	TriService Nursing Research Program & NMCSO Clinical Investigations Department N15-P05/HU0001-15-1-TS09
Role	PI
Dates of Award	5/2014-6/2019
Funded Amount	$419k
Project Aims	The aim of this study was to capture experiential learning regarding care provided during global health engagement missions among military health care personnel who have participated in these missions.
Acupuncture for Disturbed Sleep in Veterans with Post Traumatic Stress Disorder
Funded by:	TriService Nursing Research Program N12-P15/HT9404-12-1-TS15
Role:	Principle Investigator
Dates of Award:	7/2012-7/2014
Funded Amount:	$26,000
	The aim of this feasibility study was to 1) examine feasibility of auricular acupuncture studies, 2) compare auricular acupuncture acceptability between 2 groups of service members with PTSD, & 3) Compare differences in sleep measures between groups who receive auricular acupuncture.
