Dear prospective applicant,

The Department of Physics at Michigan Tech welcomes your application to our graduate programs. Our online application is simple and free of charge.

- We offer programs that fit to your interests, from physics, applied physics, to atmospheric sciences (interdisciplinary).
- We perform experimental and theoretical research spanning from the very small to the very big, from electron spin to the universe.
- We publish our research work in exceptional journals, including Science, Nature, Advanced Materials, ACS Nano, JACS, etc.
- Our faculty have won NSF CAREER awards, MTU research awards, as well as fellowships in professional societies.
- We work closely with our graduate students to help them succeed. Our graduates work as faculties in other institutes, scientists in national labs, engineers in Intel, Lam Research, etc.

Please visit our website for more information and online application.

Sincerely,

Professor Ranjit Pati
