

Now accepting grant proposals for teaching with technology!

What are PLUTO grants?

Grants are available to encourage and support innovative ideas or projects to integrate technology into teaching and learning. This opportunity is only available for spring 2019. Grant proposals can be submitted for a variety of project types and dollar amounts. Up to $10,000 in total grant funding is available.

Who can apply?

Any faculty member teaching a course in spring 2019 may apply for a grant. This opportunity is not limited to blended or online courses.

When and how can I apply?

Complete and submit the attached application document by November 13, 2018. Proposals will be reviewed and awarded by PLU's teaching and learning with technology team. Applicants will be notified of awards on November 15.
