

IMPORTANT REGISTRATION ANNOUNCEMENT!

Publishing &
Printing Arts is PPAP!

PLU's Publishing & Printing Arts Program now has its own course designation in the PLU Catalogue and on Banner: PPAP. To register for the PPA Minor core courses for Fall 2016 and beyond, please search for the PPAP prefix.

PPA core courses will continue to be accepted for credit in English, Communication, and Art & Design as they have in the past. The new PPAP course designation simply eliminates the need for cross-listing these courses and marks them as being part of one of PLU's exceptional Multidisciplinary Programs.

Old course number(s)	Course title	New course number
ENGL 311/COMA 321	The Book in Society	PPAP 301
ENGL 312/COMA 322	Publishing Procedures	PPAP 302
ENGL 313/ARTD 331	The Art of the Book I	PPAP 321
ENGL 314	The Art of the Book II	PPAP 322

For course descriptions and more information about the PPA Minor:

<http://www.plu.edu/ppa/>

For any other questions, or to sign up for the PPA Minor:

Dr. Solveig Robinson, PPA Director: solveig.robinson@plu.edu