Changes to the Faculty Handbook using bold to indicate additions.

UNIVERSITY LONG-RANGE PLANNING COMMITTEE

MEMBERSHIP:

President (Chair), five faculty, elected from the faculty at large for staggered three-year terms; two members of the President’s Council selected by the president; two members of the administrative staff selected by the Administrative Staff Council for staggered two-year terms; three students selected by the Associated Students of PLU (with consideration given to continuity of representation). A vice chair shall be elected by the committee from among the members, excluding members of the President’s Council.

ADVISORY MEMBERSHIP:

President’s Office Representative. Consistent with Article IV, Section 4, Subsection 4b, g and h of the Faculty Bylaws, advisory members shall have the same rights and privileges as any other member of the committee except the right to make motions and to vote.

GENERAL PURPOSE:

To study and analyze key issues and to recommend policy regarding future directions and priorities of the university.

SPECIFIC DUTIES:

1. To examine, as appropriate, all aspects of university program and activity.
2. To elicit information from any and all sectors of the university, as appropriate to subjects of inquiry.
3. To make recommendations to standing decision-making bodies of the university for their consideration and action.
4. To coordinate the development and implementation of comprehensive strategic planning.
5. To create and oversee such subcommittees as necessary to assist the committee in the performance of its duties and in the absence of other university bodies to provide such assistance.
6. To regularly consult with and report to the bodies represented in the committee’s membership.