

AS FAST AS WORDS COULD FLY

What did the author mean by saying that the words Mason typed "had already spoken for him?"

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Does this story remind you of anything that has happened to you in your life?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

What genre would you consider this story?

- A) Fantasy Fiction
- B) Historical Fiction
- C) Nonfiction

Tip: If you do not know these words, google the definition!

Use your BINGO card to pick out historical facts from the story like people and places and write them here (the first one is done for you):

A) The Board of Education

B)

C)

D)

Consider what parts of the story are fiction, parts that the author made up. (Keep in mind that some of these fictional parts may still be loosely based off of real people.)

Which parts are fiction? Why?

A)

B)

C)

As Fast as Words Could Fly BINGO (3rd-4th)

Instructions: Listen to As Fast as Words Could Fly on Storyline Online and mark the phrases and words you hear. Read all of the phrases before you start. You should have one full, straight line at the end.

BINGO

"Somebody's got to make a change."

Fired

Loud and Clear

Computer

Dr. Martin
Luther King Jr.

33 words
per minute

A march

Electric Typewriter

The tinkling
bell

Tournament

South Carolina

Walk-in

Free
Space

North Carolina

Racism

Civil rights

Inequality

Sit-in

Segregation

Protest

Lyndon B.
Johnson

No one cheered

Differences

Manual
typewriter

Board of Education