WELCOME

Thank you for joining us for Winter Rose, our 2018 PLU Christmas Concert. We are delighted to share this festive celebration of the season with you.

As you enjoy today’s performance, remember that our annual Christmas concerts are but one part of a vibrant, busy performance season that showcases the collaborative work of an incredible faculty and talented students. We ask you to consider supporting these — and future — students in their PLU music journey. Your gifts, of any size, support music scholarships and will help PLU students share their talent and exceptional work for years to come. To make a donation, please visit plu.edu/christmasgift or contact the Office of Advancement at 253-535-7177.

We thank you for celebrating Christmas with us. May you have a bright and merry holiday season!

There is No Rose of Such Virtue..................Robert H. Young (1923-2011)

AUDIENCE CAROL:
Rejoice, Rejoice Believers.........................John Ferguson (b. 1941)

(PLEASE STAND AND SING)

Verse 1: Choir Only
Rejoice, rejoice, believers,
And let your lights appear;
The evening is advancing,
And darker night is near.

Verse 2: All
The bridegroom is arising
And soon is drawing nigh.
Up, pray and watch and wrestle;
At midnight comes the cry.

Verse 3: Men
The watchers on the mountain
Proclaim the bridegroom near;
Go forth as he approaches
With alleluias clear.

Verse 4: Women
The saints, who here in patience
Their cross and suff’rings bore,
Shall live and reign forever
When sorrow is no more.

Verse 5: All
Our hope and expectation,
O Jesus, now appear;
Arise, O Sun so longed for,
O’er this benighted sphere.

Arise, O heirs of glory;
The bridegroom is at hand.

The day of earth’s redemption
That sets your people free!

The marriage feast is waiting,
The gates wide open stand.

The saints, who here in patience
Their cross and suff’rings bore,
The marriage feast is waiting,
Their diadems of gold.

The marriage feast is waiting,
The gates wide open stand.
Arise, O heirs of glory;
The bridegroom is at hand.

The marriage feast is waiting,
The gates wide open stand.
Arise, O heirs of glory;
The bridegroom is at hand.

The marriage feast is waiting,
The gates wide open stand.
Arise, O heirs of glory;
The bridegroom is at hand.

The marriage feast is waiting,
The gates wide open stand.
Arise, O heirs of glory;
The bridegroom is at hand.

The marriage feast is waiting,
The gates wide open stand.
Arise, O heirs of glory;
The bridegroom is at hand.

Tomorrow Shall Be My Dancing Day.............John Gardner (1917-2011)
   Paul Tegels, organ

AUDIENCE CAROL:

(PLEASE STAND AND SING)

O come, all ye faithful,
Joyful and triumphant,
O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem;
Come and behold him Born the King of Angels:

Chorus:
O come, let us adore him,
O come, let us adore him,
O come, let us adore him,
Christ the Lord!

God of God,
Light of Light,
Lo! he abhors not the Virgin’s womb;
Very God, Begotten, not created:
(Chorus)

Sing, choir of angels,
Sing in exultation,
Sing all ye citizens of heav’n above;
Glory to God In the highest:
(Chorus)

PART III
Combined Choirs and Orchestra
Richard Nance, Conductor

In Terra Pax (Christmas Scene)...........................Gerald Finzi (1901-1956)
   Aria Manning or Morgan Roberts, soloist
   Joshua Carlisle or Luke Hartley, soloist

Text by Robert Bridges and from St. Luke 2:8-14

Solo:
A frosty Christmas Eve
when the stars were shining
Fared I forth alone
Where westward falls the hill,
And from many a village
in the water’d valley
Distant music reach’d me
peals of bells aringing:
The constellated sounds
ran sprinkling on earth’s floor
As the dark vault above with stars was spangled o’er.

Then sped my thoughts to keep that first Christmas of all
When the shepherds watching by their folds ere the dawn
Heard music in the fields and marveling could not tell Whether it were angels or the bright stars ringing.

Chorus:
And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flocks by night. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone ‘round about them, and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them,

Solo:
“Fear not: for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, Which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day, in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.”

Chorus:
And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly hosts praising God, and saying, “Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.”
Solo:
But to me heard afar
   it was starry music
Angels’ song, comforting
   As the comfort of Christ
When he spake tenderly
   To his sorrowful flock:
The old words came to me
   By the riches of time
Mellow’d and transfigured
   As I stood on the hill
Heark’ning in the aspect
   Of th’ eternal silence.

Chorus:
and on earth peace, good will toward men.

INTERMISSION

PART IV
University Symphony Orchestra
Jeffrey Bell-Hanson, Conductor

Symphony No. 1, op. 42........................ Alexandre Guilmant (1837-1911)
   2. Pastorale
   3. Finale
   Paul Tegels, organ

Fantasia on “Greensleeves”..............Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958)
   arr. Ralph Greaves (1889-1966)

AUDIENCE CAROL:
Festival First Nowell.................................arr. Dan Forrest (b. 1978)
(PLEASE STAND AND SING)

Verse 1 (ALL):
The first Nowell the angels did say
Was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay;
In fields where they lay, keeping their sheep,
On a cold winter’s night that was so deep:
Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Nowell,
Born is the King of Israel!

(Male voices)
And to the earth it gave great light,
and so it continued both day and night.

(Choir only)
Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Nowell,
Born is the King of Israel!

Verse 3 (ALL):
Then let us all with one accord
Sing praises to our heav’ny Lord
That hath made heav’n and earth of nought,
and with His blood mankind hath bought:
Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Nowell,
Born is the King of Israel!

Choir of the West
Richard Nance, Conductor

A Spotless Rose...........................................Herbert Howells (1892-1983)
   Luke Hartley or Brennan Brichoux, baritone

Originally 15th-Century German, translated into English by Catherine Winkworth (1827-1878)

A Spotless Rose is blowing,
Sprung from a tender root,
Of ancient seers’ foreshowing,
Of Jesse’s promised fruit;
Its fairest bud unfolds to light
Amid the cold, cold winter,
And in the dark midnight.
The Rose which I am singing,
Whereof Isaiah said,
Is from its sweet root springing
In Mary, purest Maid;
For through our God’s great love and might,
The Blessed Babe she bare us
In a cold, cold winter’s night.
Christ Was Born On Christmas Day.........................arr. Alice Parker (b. 1925) and Robert Shaw (1916-1999)

Gillian Dockins or Alicia Hoag, soprano
Ethan Moon or Karl Eickhoff, baritone

Two Christmas Settings..............................................John Rutter (b. 1945)

1. There Is A Flower
Maya Adams or Natalie Breshears, soprano

Sung in 15th-century English, words by John Audelay (d. 1426)

There is a flow’r sprung of a tree,
The root thereof is called Jesse,
A flow’r of price: There is none such in paradise.

This flow’r is fair and fresh of hue,
It fadeth never, but ever is new;
The blessed branch this flow’r on grew
Was Mary mild that bare Jesu:
A flow’r of grace;
Against all sorrow there is solace.

The seed hereof was Goddes sand (gift),
That God himself sowed with his hand,
In Nazareth that holy land,
Amidst her arbour a maiden found;
This blessed flow’r
Sprang never but in Mary’s bower.

When Gabriel this maid did meet,
With ‘Ave Maria’ he did her greet;
Between them two this flow’r was set
And safe was kept, no man should wit,
Till on a day In Bethlem it could spread and spray.

When that fair flow’r began to spread
And this sweet blossom began to bed (bud)
Then rich and poor of ev’ry land
They marvelled how this flow’r might spread,
Till kinges three
That blessed flower came to see.

Angels there came from heaven’s tower
To look upon this freshele flow’r,
How fair he was in his colour
And how sweet in his savour;
And to behold
How such a flow’r might spring in gold.

There is a flow’r sprung of a tree,
The root thereof is called Jesse,
A flow’r of price:
There is none such in paradise.

2. Deck the Halls

AUDIENCE CAROL:
Joy to the World..................................................arr. John Rutter (b. 1945)

(PLEASE STAND AND SING)

Joy to the world! The Lord is come:
Let earth receive her King;
Let ev’ry heart prepare him room,
And heav’n and nature sing,
And heav’n and nature sing,
And heav’n, and heav’n and nature sing.

Joy to the earth! The Savior reigns:
Let all their songs employ;
While fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains
Repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat, repeat the sounding joy.

He rules the world with truth and grace;
And makes the nations prove
The glories of his righteousness
And wonders of his love,
And wonders of his love,
And wonders, wonders of his love.

PART VI

PLU DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC
The Department of Music, part of PLU’s School of Arts and Communication, is a nationally recognized center for musical learning and sharing. The music faculty, outstanding performers, composers, conductors, authors and educators, are dedicated to helping nurture young talent and offering musical opportunities to all students. The Mary Baker Russell Music Center, with its exquisite Lagerquist Concert Hall and state-of-the-art rehearsal and learning facilities, is an architectural and aesthetic jewel set amidst majestic trees. It is home to the spectacular Gottfried and Mary Fuchs Organ. Student ensembles, from instrumental to vocal, from classical to jazz, from opera to world music, perform regularly and involve hundreds of students annually. Guest and faculty artists, in ensemble and as soloists, further enrich the wide range of educational and performance experiences the department offers the campus and community.

Richard Nance, Choir of the West

Richard Nance is Director of Choral Activities and conductor of Choir of the West, University Singers and Choral Union at PLU. Dr. Nance's choirs have been recognized as some of the finest in the United States, and have been selected to perform at several regional and national conferences of the American Choral Directors Association (ACDA), the National Collegiate Choral Organization and the National Association for Music Education. Nance has led choirs on nine international tours, where they have enjoyed great success at festivals and competitions. His choirs have taken part in important premières, including Sven-David Sandström’s Matthäuspassion and the Nordic Light Symphony by Ēriks Ešenvalds. Nance has served as the Washington State and Northwestern Division President of ACDA. Several of his compositions have been published by Hinshaw and Walton Music, and in 2002 he was selected to compose the prestigious Raymond W. Brock commissioned work for ACDA.

Brian Galante, University Chorale

Brian Galante is Chair of the Department of Music and Associate Director of Choral Activities at PLU. He conducts the University Chorale. Dr. Galante received a Doctor of Musical Arts degree from the University of North Texas and his Master of Music and Bachelor of Music Education from Louisiana State University. Choirs under Dr. Galante’s direction have offered invitational performances in Carnegie Hall and Lincoln Center, New York; the Meyerson Symphony Center, Dallas; Notre Dame Cathedral and Sacré Coeur, Paris; the 2010 Washington Music Educators Association conference; the 2011 Northwest MENC Conference; and the 2012 Northwest Division ACDA Conference. In addition, Dr. Galante is a successful composer and arranger: published by Galante Music, Walton Music, and Colla Voce Music; performed by professional, collegiate, and advanced high school choirs throughout the United States and Europe; and recorded for commercial release by Centaur Records, MSR, and PLU Media Services. He is President of the American Choral Directors Association Northwest Region.

Jeffrey Bell-Hanson, University Symphony Orchestra

Jeffrey Bell-Hanson is in his 17th season as Music Director of the PLU Symphony Orchestra and Professor of Music. Dr. Bell-Hanson has conducted orchestras and wind ensembles throughout the United States and in Bulgaria and the Czech Republic, including the West Bohemian Symphony Orchestra, the Olympia Symphony, the Marquette Symphony Orchestra, the Vratza Philharmonic and the Philharmonia Bulgarica. Since arriving in the Pacific Northwest in 2002, he has become a familiar presence as a conductor, clinician, adjudicator and orchestral educator. Each year he works with school orchestras at all levels throughout the region and beyond, bringing to them the perspective of his 38 year career as a conductor and as a scholar. A sign of his national recognition and leadership, he will begin serving a term as President of the College Orchestra Directors Association in 2019.

Paul Tegels, University Organist

Paul Tegels, a native of the Netherlands, is Associate Professor of Music and University Organist at PLU. He received his Doctor of Musical Arts Degree in Organ Performance and Pedagogy and his Master of Arts Degree in Choral Conducting from the University of Iowa, where he studied organ with Delores Bruch and choral conducting with William Hatcher. Other degrees and awards include the Artist Diploma and the Master of Music Degree in organ performance from the New England Conservatory in Boston, where he studied with Yuko Hayashi and William Porter. He is the recipient of a Fulbright Scholarship from the Netherlands-America Commission for Educational Exchange. He holds the teaching and performance degrees from the Stedelijk Conservatorium in Arnhem, The Netherlands, where he studied organ with Bert Matter and harpsichord with Cees Rosenhart. He has done extensive research on the organ and harpsichord concertos of Franz Joseph Haydn, and has played the first American performance of the Haydn Organ Concerto in D, Hoboken XVIII-2, of which he has prepared a performance edition. He has also performed extensively in solo and ensemble concerts in the United States, Europe, Japan and New Zealand, and appears frequently in duet concerts with organist Dana Robinson.
