

PLUMS: PLU Matching Scholarship

Purpose - The purpose of this program is to provide financial assistance to undergraduate students attending Pacific Lutheran University. Through the PLUMS program, PLU will annually match individual scholarships provided by congregations or organizations within the church, up to $1,000.

Who Is Eligible?

To qualify, a student must be a full-time undergraduate student offered admission or currently enrolled at PLU. Dependents of Pacific Lutheran University employees receiving Tuition Remission are not eligible for a matching scholarship.

How is the program administered?

PLU matches scholarship monies received from congregations, up to $1,000, based on the following stipulations:

- PLUMS is a cooperative effort between the congregation’s selection committee and PLU Student Financial Services.
- Annual application is required.
- PLUMS has limited funding and is awarded on a first-come-first-served basis.
- Financial need is not considered when awarding PLUMS.
- Church payments must be made directly to PLU. Payments made directly to students are not considered for matching funds.
- Both the church scholarship and PLU Matching Scholarship will be split evenly between Fall and Spring semesters.
- As a participating member of an NCAA Division III athletic conference, PLU student athletes cannot accept scholarships awarded on the basis of athletic participation, achievement, or leadership. By requesting this PLU match of your congregation's scholarship, you are acknowledging that your scholarship does not consider athletics in its scholarship selection process.

Congregational Contribution:

An Internal Revenue Service regulation prevents the designation of any recipient by an individual donor. By signing, you are certifying that the funding for this program will be provided through the congregation as a whole, or by an auxiliary of the congregation. Direct contributions to this program from parents, relatives, or friends of specific students are not considered to be in the spirit of the Pacific Lutheran University Matching Scholarship Program.
