

Join the Economics Department as we study the economics of golf course design and management, and the economics of the LPGA and PGA tours.

Travel to Monterey, San Diego, and Palm Desert, California, and Phoenix Arizona to interview golf course designers, LPGA and PGA officials, equipment manufactures, golf course managers, and play or walk a variety of courses.

Program highlights include:

- Walk with Tiger at the famous Torrey Pines Golf Course in San Diego, California
- Marshal at the Humana Challenge PGA tournament in La Quinta, California

- Work the Shotlink greenside towers at a major PGA tournament
- Learn the economics of staging the oldest LPGA tour event in Palm Desert
- Discuss college golf with Tim Mickelson, coach of the ASU Sun Devil Golf Team
