

HUNGARY

Comparative Education

J-Term 2014

This study-away experience provides an opportunity to cultivate an authentic multi-ethnic frame of reference and deepen understanding culture's impact on development and learning with a special emphasis on poverty.

Highlights:

- Observe and participate in a variety of Hungarian schools and/or civic institutions.
- See urban and rural Hungary.
- Visit in typical Hungarian homes.
- Tour various sights in Buda and Pest—Jewish quarter, Thermal baths, Roman ruins Fisherman's Bastion, Hero's square, and many more!
- Cruise the Danube.
- Engage in various cultural experiences—Opera, Art museums, Folk music, etc.

Comparative Education Hungary

Credit:

EDUC 385

- Department Credit
- GenEd Credit (C)

Program Cost:
$4,850

Includes airfare,
lodging, program
related transportation,
and supplemental study
abroad insurance.

Faculty:

Frank Kline
Dean, School of Education and Movement Studies
253-535-7272
klinefm@plu.edu

For further information contact the Wang Center for Global Education

253-535-7577
Wang.center@plu.edu

[http://www.plu.edu/
studyaway/](http://www.plu.edu/studyaway/)

Course Description:

Set in beautiful Budapest and Hungary, this course will build cross-cultural competence. Special attention will be given to the poor, Roma and Jewish culture. Home and school visits and cultural excursions will provide opportunity for understanding first hand the reality of life for these cultural and ethnic groups. Intensive interactions will be developed as students assist in providing English instruction in an elementary school. Students will also have opportunity to gain deeper understanding of modern European history including: World War II, the fall of the "Iron Curtain," the 1956 Revolution, and the holocaust.

Application Deadline:

April 12th, 2013. A non-refundable deposit of $50.00 is required with the application. A $250 non-refundable payment to confirm participation in the course is due within 10 days of notification of acceptance. Maximum 18 students.

