J-Term Meal Away Meal Plans
It’s Not Too Complicated...

J-Term Away Classes

Are you staying at least seven total days (before and after you return from your trip) in your residence hall room?

No?

• You don’t have to sign up for a meal plan.
• Notify Residential Life that you’ll be off campus for J-Term.
• They will inactivate your J-Term housing — this doesn’t change your Spring housing assignment at all.
• If you don’t notify Residential Life, you’ll be charged for a meal plan and there is no refund.
• You can leave your stuff in your room.
• Your J-Term meal plan will automatically be cancelled.
• If you like, you can sign up for the Kreidler Plan or add Dining Dollars to your account.
• Left over Dining Dollars will be available in the Spring.

Yes?

• You are REQUIRED to have a meal plan.
• You are eligible for a special J-Term Away Meal Plan.
• When registration for J-Term Away classes is complete, you’ll be sent an email from mealplan@plu.edu. The email will tell you that you’re eligible for the J-Term away meal plan and then you just have to reply back to the email with an “OK”.
• It costs $135.00.
• J-Term Away Meal Plan is Dining Dollars only.
• If you don’t use the Dining Dollars, they will be available in the Spring.
• You can purchase AYCTE meals with your Dining Dollars.
• If you want a regular meal plan, you can sign up for it, but we don’t recommend it.
