

NAMIBIA

Comparative Education

J-Term 2014

Before beginning student teaching in Katutura, will students experience local culture and tradition by visiting a cattle farm, national parks, and tent schools. Program highlights include:

- Student teaching and volunteering in the township of Katutura.
- Cultural immersion with a weekend stays on a farm and Etosha National Park.
- Climbing the tallest sand dunes in the world of the Namib Desert.
- Weekend trip to climb the world's tallest sand dunes in the Namib Desert.

Comparative Education Namibia

Credit:

EDUC 385/585

- Department Credit
- GenEd Credit (C)

Program Cost:
$6,950

Includes airfare, lodging, program
related transportation,
and supplemental study abroad insurance.

Faculty:

Paula Leitz
Assistant Professor Instructional Development and Leadership
leitzph@plu.edu

For further information contact the Wang Center for Global Education

253-535-7577
Wang.center@plu.edu

[http://www.plu.edu/
studyaway/](http://www.plu.edu/studyaway/)

Course Description:

Students begin student teaching in Katutura, Namibia, a township of Windhoek on this 8-week J-term program. While in the city, there are multiple opportunities to interact with significant individuals in the Namibian community. In addition to spending time in the city we have weekend excursions to a farm in the Kalahari Desert and to Sossusvlei National Park in the Namib Desert. We also have a 6-day excursion to the North and visit the Cheetah Conservation Foundation, Ondao Mobile School, and Etosha National Park. Assignments goals and school activities are intended to deepen students' cultural competence to serve them well as education professionals.

Application Deadline:

April 12th, 2013. A non-refundable deposit of $50.00 is required with the application. A $250 non-refundable payment to confirm participation in the course is due within 10 days of notification of acceptance. Maximum 18 students.

