PROGRAM OVERVIEW

This four week course provides a unique opportunity to learn theory and practice of Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM) from Chinese Practitioners. It explores the Chinese Health Care System in which TCM is practiced. This course includes studies in Fundamentals of TCM diagnosis, Chinese herbs, acupuncture, Chinese Massage, and TCM nursing. This experience will enhance student's understanding of the healthcare delivery system within China as it compares to healthcare in the United States. This course is culturally rich by the fact students will be travelling in Xian, Chengdu, and Beijing to see famous historical sites and experience activities based in Chinese tradition.
