PROGRAM OVERVIEW

This course will explore the history of Italy with particular focus on the role of women, the Catholic Church within Italy and abroad (historically), and economic and cultural development in relation to the environment and the Mediterranean region, which includes parts of the Middle East.

Why should we study History in Italy?

Italy is considered the birthplace of Western culture. But it is much more! We will learn about its history through a focus on gender, regional and global relationships, economic development, and the environment.
