COURSE OVERVIEW

We will examine the past, present, and future of the American presidency in the context of the inauguration. We will be studying half of J-Term at PLU and then travel to D.C. for the 2025 presidential inauguration. Likewise, we will explore sites in D.C. related to the themes covered during the in-class sessions. Finally, we will connect with elected representatives to learn about the relationship between the presidency and the legislative branch.
