

What if it doesn't meet the new Title IX standard?

Pacific Lutheran University Training
Title IX Personnel

If an incident doesn't meet the new definition for a Title IX case:

---

Students can move the case forward through SRR as:

- Concern for self and others
- Disruption of University Community
- Any other existing student code that may be applicable

Students will still be offered resources, supportive measures, a timely response/process

Role of Title IX Bench

- Bench members may be asked to serve as a review officer for an incident that doesn't meet the Title IX definition; however, meets the PLU community standard of concern
- Dean of Students or Vice President for SL will serve as appeal officer
- Student Care Network Coordinator or Dean of Students will serve as coordinator of the conduct process for these cases
